2. If yes to question one, briefly describe your homeschooling experience. (Grade level, program, curriculum, classes attended, how many years, etc.)

3. Why are you deciding to home school your student? (Be as specific as you can.)

4. Briefly describe how you will be providing instruction at home. (For example, who will facilitate instruction? When will instruction take place? Where will instruction take place? What strategies do you have in mind to make sure that your student cooperates with you as a teaching parent?)

5. Yes / No Is the primary instructor an adult (age 18 or older)?

6. Yes / No Is English the primary language of the primary instructor?

7. Yes / No Will the primary instructor work outside of the home?
If yes, what hours? _____
8. Yes / No Do you understand that this program requires parent support in specific weekly responsibilities and does not allow your student to work alone?
9. Yes / No Will the primary instructor be able to provide instruction for your student approximately four to six hours daily (depending on student's grade level and needs)?
10. Yes / No Will the primary instructor be available for all meetings with the resource teacher and/or assisting educators (an average of 2 – 4 times per report period)?
11. Yes / No In the event that your student enters the program on probation and/or on a trial basis, or is put on probation, are you willing to attend weekly meetings with the resource teacher?
12. Yes / No Will the primary instructor be willing to create a daily work schedule, in a planner, from your student based subject/resource teachers' weekly assignments?
13. Yes / No Will the primary instructor be willing to correct (with the help of an answer key) all assignments on a daily basis?
14. Yes / No If needed, are you able to attend tutoring/teaching sessions, parent trainings, and/or parent/student workshops?
15. Yes / No Are you willing to commit to transporting your student to all necessary school classes and enrichment activities depending on your student's schedule and needs.
16. Yes / No Do you understand that your student will be required to participate in all state mandated STAR testing annually?
